DARBY A. DAY GOES TO CHICAGO.

Former General Agent of Mutual Life Insurance Company in Albuquerque, Pick-ed for Best Post in Field of Company.

Darby A. Day, for several years general agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York for New Mexico, Arizona and West Texas with headquarters in Albuquerque has been promoted from a general agency in Milwaukee to be manager of the Mutual office in Chicago. The Chicago position is considered the next post in the field of the Mutual. A Milwaukee paper, in telling of the promotion given to the former Albuquerque, has the following to say:

"Appreciation of the first-rate ability of a Milwaukee man was shown by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York when it appointed Darby A. Day to the responsible post of manager of its Chicago office."

The Chicago office of the Mutual Life is the most important in the field. Its headquarters are in the Temple, 108 South La Salle street, on the Bank floor, and are spacious, elegant and completely equipped—the finest insurance offices in the west. On his staff in his new position Mr. Day will have 100 agents, all picked men—25 others, a medical referee, a cashier, a superintendent and two branch managers. The branch offices are at 112 Adams street, in the Commercial bank building, and at 1542 West Madison street, corner of Ogden avenue.

"Still a young man—he is only 27—Mr. Day has attained his enviable position not by preference, not by sudden promotion, but by hard work and steady substantial growth. He has risen step by step, and his recognized efficiency in his chosen department of endeavor is the result of ability ripened by experience."

He was born in West Virginia. His early services for the company were performed in the capacity of an agent in Arizona. Subsequently he was sent to New Mexico as manager at Albuquerque, and later was transferred as manager to Providence, R. I. Then he was appointed agency supervisor of the central division, comprising the territory from Cleveland, O., to Topeka, Kan., and all of the northwest to the Canadian line, including the Dakotas. From actual contact with the details of the business he is familiar with conditions in all the wide region of which Chicago is the natural headquarters.

"An insurance publication, appraising the qualifications which have enabled him to command exceptional success, remarks: 'Mr. Day is a most approachable man, possessing a sympathetic and delightful personality. He works hard himself and demands hard work of his men, but he is appreciative of their trials and difficulties and knows how to lend a hand. He communicates enthusiasm to those associated with him in working for the company, and it is not surprising to learn that there is general pleasure in his selection. The first month's business in the Chicago office under the new regime has amounted to
